Hi [REDACTED] and [REDACTED],

If was nice to meet both. You mentioned some OTC options. Or any other options that you have for my concerns, please send me the details for that as well.
Thanks

Best regards,

Hi Jonathan,

Pleasure to meet you earlier today. As discussed, please feel free to reach out to privateclient@blockfi.com for any future needs so that we can help in a more timely fashion.

Regarding partnership opportunities, I spoke with [REDACTED]. Unfortunately, we are not ready for that type of partnership at this time. That being said, definitely feel free to touch base down the road as things progress quite quickly over here. Thanks Jonathan

Hi J,

Morning batch is going out soon. As soon as they send them out it will go together with the batch, should not be much longer. For payoffs, if you want to pay via wire you can do that through Scratch. This form takes from 3-5 days to process and collateral to be returned. The quickest method is via stablecoin which is done via request through me. I enter this payoff in and collateral is returned by the end of the day.

The payoff amount is determined by our finance team taking into account interest and principal calculations to the day of payoff.

Best,

Also.

If I go in and want to payoff my loans.

Do I need to go thru you or is it possible to do it on my own? And is that instant or does it take a day or more to complete the payoff process?
What determines the payoff amount and what triggers it?

Hi [REDACTED]

I've created the loan and signed it. Please take the existing collateral in the refinanced loans and also use my eth in my interest account to make up the difference.

Please take care of this so it can be funded in the morning. Thank you.

Please confirm. Thanks.
